Highlights of NSS activities for the year 2021-22

April, 2021:

- NSS volunteer donated blood for a patient
- NSS volunteers also distributed corona awareness leaflet in adopted villages
- NSS volunteers cleaned the college campus and performed other activities.

May, 2021:

• NSS volunteers distributed food items for YASH affected people at Ariakhali village under Kukrahati gram panchayet

June, 2021:

• NSS volunteers distributed food items and drinking water for YASH affected people at Baisnabchak village under Guaberia gram panchayet

July, 2021:

• NSS volunteers celebrated AranyaSaptaha from 14.07.2021 to 20.07.2021 through different activities such as plantation, awareness rally, sapling distribution and seminar

August, 2021:

• NSS volunteers sprayed insecticides in the flood affected villages to prevent the spreading of various diseases like malaria, dengue etc.

• NSS volunteers paid homage to SahidKshudiram Bose on his death anniversary

NSS volunteers organized rally for the occasion of Fit India Freedom Run 2.0.
The rally went through the adopted villages. A seminar was also organized on Relevance of Indian Freedom Movements.

NSS volunteer helped in agricultural activities.

• NSS volunteers celebrated RakshaBandhanUtsav at adopted villages

• NSS volunteers assisted villagers in filling up various forms at the DuareSarkar project.

• NSS volunteers celebrated independence day

• NSS volunteers cleaned the college campus and performed other activities

September, 2021:

- On 3rd September, 2021 NSS volunteers plough the field in the college garden and planted various seeds of vegetables and crops on the occasion of .poshanmaah.
- They also visited nearby panchayet office, met with the female workers and conveyed the message of eating foods with good nutritious value and practicing

• On international literacy day (08.09.2021) the NSS volunteers visited adopted village and took the initiative to teach the children, men and women who did not know the alphabets. They continued this class for next few months until they could read and also write their names.

• NSS day was celebrated on 24.09.2021. A hand on training programme on first aid and disaster management was organized for NSS volunteers. Plantation and sapling distribution was also done on that day.

October, 2021:

• On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, an awareness rally on plastic free environment was organized. The rally went through adopted villages.

 Covid-19 vaccination camp was organized at our college for all students, teaching and non-teaching staff. NSS volunteers were involved in these events (both first and second dose of vaccination). They helped in managing the crowd and providing sanitizer to them.

• As a part of clean India programme and plastic free India movement our NSS volunteers cleaned the banks of Haldi and Hoogly River. Their work was highlighted in NSS India twitter page.

• National unity day was celebrated jointly by NSS, NCC and cultural unit of our college. Students performed songs, dance and other cultural activities on that day. They also discussed about the importance of the day.

November, 2021:

• The NSS unit of our college in association with district health department, PurbaMedinipur organized blood donation and thalassemia detection camp on 3rd November, 2021. The number of participants for thalassemia detection was eighty and the number of participants for blood donation was fifty including students and college staff.

 Our NSS volunteers also were prepared useful things using plastic boltless and they spread this awareness of recycling plastic materials among the school students.

 Our NSS volunteers put up anti-smoking and tobacco free campus awareness posters in front of our college gate, canteen and other nearby educational institutes (19.11.2021).

• An orientation programme for the NSS volunteers and students was organized on 20.11.2021. Mr. Vinay Kumar, Regional director, NSS Kolkata was present the chief guest in that programme. He also delivered a lecture on the impotence of NSS in developing our society. The total number of participants in this programme was around one hundred including students and college staff.

National Constitution day was celebrated jointly by NSS and NCC unit of our college on 26th November, 2021. Students performed songs, dance and other cultural activities on that day. They also discussed about the importance of the day.

 Two NSS Volunteers from unit IV Mr. Pappu Bag and Ms. MouliKalsa were selected for Pre RD Camp held at CIT, Kokrajorh, Assam from 28.10.21-3.11.21

December, 2021:

- World AIDS day was celebrated jointly by NSS and NCC unit of our college. Guests from PurbaMedinipur district hospital were present in this programme. Awareness rally, quiz competition and blood donation camp was organized. The number of participants were more than one hundred in this event
- Saplings were also distributed among the students.

 A seminar on gender sensitization was organized by NSS unit in collaboration with IQAC of our college. Our principal, IQAC coordinator and other senior faculty members attended the seminar. Dr. Amrita Banerjee from English department delivered the lecture. The number of participants in this programme was around fifty.

• Regular activities such as .campus cleaning, gardening and campus sanitization were also performed in the month of December.

• NSS volunteer Ms. ChhandashreeGuria was selected for National Integration Camp from 15.12.21-21.12.21 held at SOA University, Bhubaneswar

January, 2022:

- NSS volunteer Uday Chandra Bera took classes for rural children in adopted village.
- Yoga and physical training practice was conducted in adopted village.
- Republic day was celebrated by NSS unit.
- Mr. Pappu Bag from unit 4 was selected for RD Parade Camp at New Delhi January 2022.
- Regular activities such as .campus cleaning, gardening and campus sanitization were also performed in the month of Januaru.

February, 2022:

- Regular activities such as .campus cleaning, gardening and campus sanitization were also performed in the month of February.
- International Mother Language day was celebrated in collaboration with Bengali department.
- Survey work on Pradhanmantri Jan DhanYojona was conducted by NSS volunteers in adopted village.

March, 2022:

- Our College received SAVE RIVER CAPAIGN AWARD from SAAIRD for River Cleaning Programmeby NSS Unit
- Nine of our NSS volunteers received prizes for various competition organized by District Health Dept. PurbaMedinipur under the scheme New India@75 phase II
- Mr. Pranab Kumar Jana, PO along with two NSS volunteers participated in state level NSS youth camp at SiligurirSurjaSenMahavidyalaya, Siliguri
- Anti-smoking awareness leaflet was distributed by NSS volunteers
- One NSS volunteer donated blood for a critical patient in adopted village

Various activities by NSS unit IV were highlighted in print media

